Everything about quality

M A I N I N F O R M A T I O N

Inside and outside

We are making SLOWDOWN bean bags with love! Product quality control is observed in the process of manufacturing bean bags, which is ensured by assigning a quality code in every phase of manufacturing.

All bean bags consist of two bags:

- an inner bag, which is filled with a bean bag filling, i.e., polystyrene (EPS) beads;
- an outer bag, which is easy to take off and wash or clean (depending on the kind of textile it is made of). Only strong cloths of special selection tested by means of the Martindale textile resistance test are used for manufacturing our bean bags.

Zippers

Strong zippers with wide teeth are used for outside bags. Pulls of zippers are hidden under the seam of the cloth thus, ensuring protection of the floor covering from damage. All inside bags have zippers, which enable the manufacturer to regulate the quantity of filling that determines the softness of the bean bag.

INSIDE ZIPPER

Bean bag beads

Polystyrene beads used for filling naturally compress over time with use. SLOWDOWN bean bags utilize higher durability and density granules. To mitigate fire risks, non-flammable granules certified to meet the DIN 4102 standard are used in the bean bags.

Bean bag with polystyrene beads packaging

Bean bags are packed:

- in two thick and strong bags of recycled polyethylene or
- in a cardboard box containing a pre-packed product in a protective polyethylene bag.

Foam bean bag packaging

Bean bags are packed:

- the inner bag with foam is compressed, vacuumed, and placed in a bag;
- the compressed bag is placed together with the outer cover in a box.

All packages moisture levels are controlled with a disposable bag that absorbs moisture – a desiccant bag

Bean bag threads and details

Elements for bean bags are cut out semi-automatically. This method enables the manufacturer to avoid any deviations from the set measurements and eliminate defects in the final product. All textile elements (cut-outs) used in the manufacturing of bean bags have their edges thread-hemmed to prevent the cloth from unraveling and ensure high product quality. Bean bags are sewn using a double-stitched seam with reinforced threads for enhanced strength.

Soft woven labels are used for labelling bean bags

Advertising

Every year, many companies attempt to find ways to increase the popularity of their trademark and attract potential customers. How to become more visible? How to ensure visibility at various events, festivals, beaches, and other public places? Which advertising means must be used to ensure your trademark's long-term benefits?

(Jim Beam, Bolt, Coca-Cola, Paulig, Malibu, Chupa Chups, Carlsberg, Palmolive, Beach Tennis Club, Somersby, Lays, Pepsi, DPD, Google, Bacardi, Perrier, KIA, Pringles) — all these brands have already invoked one particular advertising measure — bean bags with logo prints or embroidery. The high-quality SLOWDOWN bean bags can be successfully integrated into advertising campaigns (e.g., “buy a product - win a bean bag”), presentations, tasting demonstrations, and recreational areas at various events. Consumers can enjoy lounging on bean bags and share their pleasant moments on Facebook and Instagram throughout the year!
